

WILLIAM WHITE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early years and education
Joined the Peace Corps	1962
Assignment in Ethiopia	1962
Returned to Washington as Peace Corps Program Officer for East Africa	1963
Became Executive Director, Economic Development Agency in Los Angeles	1964
Joined USAID Far East Bureau in Washington, DC and the Philippines	1966
Left USAID and joined the Model Cities Administration
Returned to the Peace Corps	1970
Assignment with the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights	1974-1980
Returned to USAID as Director, Office of International Training	1980
Transferred to the Sahel, West Africa Office	1982
Overseas in USAID/Pakistan	1983
Returned in 1985 and post-USAID activities
Observations on experience in domestic and international development

KEY WORDS

Afghan refugees
Africare
agricultural project
China
community health program
community development
computer technology
East Africa
Economic Development Agency

Ethiopia
Far East Bureau
Indonesia
International Secretariat for Volunteer Services (ISVS)
Japan
Kenya
Korean Peninsula
Kwame Nkrumah
Laos
Lyndon Johnson
Malaysia
Model Cities Administration
Multilateral and Special Programs
Office of Economic Opportunity
Office of International Training
Pakistan
participation
Peace Corps
Philippines
President Kennedy
private business
program budgeting
refugee problem
Regional Economic Development Office
Sahel
secondary education
segregated schools
Sigur Center for Asian Studies
Singapore
Small Business Administration
South Vietnam
Taiwan
terrorists
Thailand
U.S. Commission on Civil Rights
Uganda
United Nations Association
Vietnam
West Africa Office