

AMBASSADOR JOSEPH C. WILSON IV

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Connecticut; raised in California, Arizona, and Europe
University of California at Santa Barbara; Eastern Washington University
Entered Foreign Service - 1976

Niamey, Niger - General Services Officer 1976-1978

Environment
AID
Uranium
Government

Lome, Togo - Administrative Officer 1978-1979

Tribes
French
Environment
Ghana
Marriage

State Department - Africa Bureau - Administrative Officer 1979-1981

Funding
AID
Vice President Mondale's African visit
Operations

Pretoria, South Africa - Administrative Officer 1981-1982

Morale
Environment

Bujumbura, Burundi - Deputy Chief of Mission 1982-1985

Tutsi-Hutu relations
Organization of African Unity
Foreign influence
Peace Corps
Economy
Missionaries
"Constructive engagement"
Nyerere
Drought
Government

Washington, DC - American Political Science Association -

Congressional Fellow Senator Al Gore South Africa	1985-1986
Brazzaville, Congo - Deputy Chief of Mission Sassou France Government Relations	1986-1988
Baghdad, Iraq - Deputy Chief of Mission U.S. programs Population groups Foreign relations Ambassador Glaspie Iran-Iraq war Saddam Hussein Glaspie-Hussein talks Iraq-Kuwait relations Iraq attacks Kuwait American hostages Saddam-Wilson meeting Iraq proposes “deal” with the U.S. U.S. press “leaks” Iraq “mob” history U.S. press corps Iraq’s military capability Evacuations Embassy operations U.S. visitors Thanksgiving Soviet investment UN Missile rumors Israelis Public attitude Sanctions proposals Americans as “human shields” CNN Americans expelled Diplomacy attempts Saddam’s view of war UN Security Council Resolution Dangers in defeating Saddam “Exotic” weapons use Embassy final evacuation	1988-1991

Meeting with the Bushes Saddam's philosophy
Senior Seminar	1991-1992
Gabon - Ambassador	1992-1995
Confirmation process
Economy
Government
French interests
Peace Corps
Oil
Environment
Leaders
African-American summit
Democracy
Elections
Radio
Relations
Equatorial Guinea
U.S. interests
AIDS
Stuttgart, Germany - SACEUR - Political Advisor	1995-1997
“Provide Comfort” operation
Ex-Yugoslavia issues
Operations
Swiss
Briefings
Power Point shows
Command structure
Bosnia
Kurds
Africa issues
French military
Rwanda
UN
NATO capabilities
European military capabilities
Israelis
U.S. airlift capabilities
White House - National Security Council - African Affairs	1997-1998
Sudan
Sahel
Congo

Rwanda
“Partnership for Growth and Opportunity”
President Clinton’s Africa trip
Entebbe summit meeting
Hillary Clinton
Sudan
European cooperation

Retirement

1998