

AMBASSADOR CURTIN WINSOR, JR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Education and early career with State Department
U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency 1967-1970
Congressional Relations
Foreign Policy Advisor, Republican National Committee
Chase Manhattan Bank
Near East Bureau
Problems with American Republics Affairs
Transition report for Oceans, Environment and Science Bureau
Bankruptcy

Ambassador to Costa Rica 1983-1985

Appointment
Economic situation
U.S. “two-track” policy in Central America
Costa Ricans perception of political ambassadors
Evolution of Costa Rica’s economic problems
Embassy Staff
World Bank and IMF in Costa Rica
AID and U.S. economic support
Withholding aid
Economics vs. politics in State Department policy
Costa Rica’s political situation
Costa Rica’s history
Drug activity in Costa Rica
Military in Costa Rica
Nicaraguan political situation and relations with Costa Rican labor unions
CIA and USIA
Congressmen in Costa Rica
National Security Council, Oliver North, Tony Motley and political problems

Removal from post

Embassy support and problems with DCM
Backing Jesse Helms
Fate of other ambassadors to Latin America

Conclusion

Greatest accomplishment
Disappointments
State of Foreign Service