

MARCUS L. WINTER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early years and education
Joined the Peace Corps in Peru	1965-1967
Joined USAID; assigned to USAID/Nigeria	1968-1971
USAID/Korea	1970-1972
USAID Regional Economic Development Support Office in East Africa	1972-1977
Sabbatical at the University of Kentucky	1977-1978
USAID/Egypt; Head of Agriculture Planning and Analysis	1978
USAID/Zimbabwe; Agricultural Officer	1981-1984
USAID/Washington; Africa Bureau	1984
USAID/Indonesia; Head of Agriculture and Rural Development	1988-1992
Concluding observations on international development

KEY WORDS

African socialism
agrarian reform
agricultural research
agricultural strategy
agricultural universities Agricultural Credit Project agricultural production loans agricultural planning agricultural sector program
agricultural extension
agricultural policy Agricultural Training Project
Agriculture Planning and Analysis
Ahmadu Bello University
Arusha Area Development

Aswan Dam
bean storage and marketing biotechnology
Blacksmith Project
Botswana buffer stock
collectivization
Consortium for The Study of Nigerian Rural Development cooperative association demobilized military education
education sector program
Egypt
Egyptian irrigation system
Ethiopia
Farmer's Home Administration
fish pond loan
health sector program
Ife University
India
Indonesia
infrastructure
institutional development
Kansas State University
Kenya
Korea
Korean Economic Planning Board
local currency
Malawi
mechanization
Michigan State University
Mozambique
National Agricultural Cooperative Federation
Nigeria
Nyerere
OSARAC
participant training
Peace Corps
Peru
PL-480
poor communities
poultry production
private sector
Provincial Rural Development Program
Ruhingari Watershed Project
rural roads

rural road institutions

Rwanda

small loans

soil conservation

South Africans

storage

subsidy

Sudan

sustainability

Swaziland

Tanzania

terracing

University of Wisconsin

University of Pennsylvania

University of Zimbabwe

Zimbabwe