

AMBASSADOR JOHN O'LEARY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Philadelphia, raised in Portland, Maine
Yale College; Cambridge University
Maine and national politics
Vietnam
Democratic Party politics
Campaigning for Muskie

Portland, Maine; Private law practice

1974-1998

Environmental litigation
Superfund
Japanese fishing
Maine environment
Chile
Maine politics
Member, Portland City Council
Portland city issues
Tax issues
Democratic Party politics
Candidate for Congress, 1982
Recalling the Clintons and George Bush at Yale
Clinton 1992 Presidential campaign
Mission to Bolivia
Northern Ireland issue
Judgeship offer

Ambassador to Chile

1998-2001

US-Chile relations
Free Trade issues
F.16s
NAFTA negotiations
Pinochet
Letelier Case
World Trade Organization (WTO)
Jordan trade agreement
Brunei APEC meeting
Chile's Washington embassy
Military supply issue
Economy
US commercial interests
Environment

European competition
Grapes